

For Immediate Release

Gallery Group

For its summer exhibition, Luise Ross Gallery brings together painting, photography, drawing and sculpture. The exhibition includes John Dilg's paintings from his recent New York scholastic residency, and Willie Birch's grisaille portraits and papier-mâché sculpture.

Three new additions to the gallery are China Marks, T.L. Solien and Thomas Lyon Mills. Marks' large sewn drawings on vivid fabrics bring a surreal fantasy to the group. T.L. Solien filters his personal history through symbolic narratives. In his New York debut, Mills' large-scale drawings explore the silent history and dark beauty of hidden spaces in the Roman catacombs and in the remote Adirondacks. They will be presented alongside other members of the gallery, featuring:
